

CLARK & JENNY · THE CURRENT PLAN

Paris, Mont-Saint-Michel & London

Sat Nov 28 – Thu Dec 10, 2026 · a birthday in London

Legend: BOOKED locked in OPEN not booked yet, still changeable. Every line carries one. Summary in Booked & Open.

The Paris week is unchanged. Then five extra days: a night facing Mont-Saint-Michel (TGV to Rennes and a short drive), back to Paris for one night, the Eurostar on the birthday morning, and three nights in London with the birthday dinner on Mon Dec 7. Same rhythm: slow mornings, one light anchor a day, one proper dinner.

Weather: Mont-Saint-Michel and London in December are cool, grey and damp, highs around 45–48 °F, windy on the bay; sunset ~5 PM at the Mont and ~3:50 PM in London. Pack layers, a waterproof jacket and good shoes.

Risks: check SNCF strike notices about 48 hours before the Dec 5 and Dec 6 trains (and Eurostar for Dec 7). December daylight ends ~5 PM, so plan the drives in daylight.
